Rules of Membership

(as per Rules of Association)

OBJECTS

- The object of the organization is to promote, foster and practice the arts of choral music, orchestral music, drama, musical theatre and kindred arts.
- To promote public awareness, knowledge and appreciation of the respective arts
- To provide opportunity for people of all ages to participate in the practice and presentation of the respective arts.
- To provide community access to the presentation of works of the respective arts.

Membership

- A membership fee of $20/Adult and $5/Child is payable annually
- Life membership entitles that member to have their membership fees waived
- A register of members will be kept by the management committee and available to all other members if required.

General Responsibilities

- The hut is available to all members for any non- commercial rehearsals.
- Keys to the hut will be kept by the management committee and others approved by this committee (key register to be kept by the secretary/treasurer)
- If the hut is required by a member to conduct a commercial operation it must first of all be approved by a general meeting and a fee set.
- The commercial operation must be fostering the arts within the community
- A group, performing for commercial gain and operating under the Performing arts banner must divert all funds back to the Performing Arts operating account.
- Expenses incurred by members on behalf of Goondiwindi Performing Arts inc., will/may be reimbursed by the committee. A copy of the original receipt together with an expense claim form (this can be obtained from the treasurer) should be submitted to the treasurer and then for approval at a general meeting of the association.
- It is the responsibility of all members to keep the hut clean and grounds tidy.
- Members are allowed the use of props and stage equipment owned by Goondiwindi Performing Arts Inc. Permission must first be obtained from the committee and equipment returned in a clean and tidy state.
- Non members of the Goondiwindi Performing Arts Inc. requiring the use of props and stage equipment can do so by hiring.
